“Law is a certain ordinance of reason for the common good, promulgated for the care of the community”.

Dear Parent(s)

Congratulations! You have been nominated for attending the practicum on Legal Literacy to be held at Karkarduma Court, Delhi on 25 April 2016 from 10.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m.

VBS believes in “learning beyond books” and in giving its students opportunities for hands on training to make learning interesting and fun filled endeavour for them. This workshop is once in a life time opportunity for the students to get acquainted with the judicial and legal system of India and know about their rights and duties to become aware and enlightened citizens of India. The students will also get a chance to interact with a few renowned judges of our country.

Please note : The students must reach school at the usual time . They must carry a note pad and a pen. The students should come properly attired in their school uniform and must carry their water bottle. Eatables inside the premises are not allowed, however refreshment will be provided to the students.

Kindly send the duly filled consent form to the Activity In- charge latest by 22.4.2016.

Regards

Meenakshi Zarabi
